EUROCRYPT 2002 April 28–May 2, 2002, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Conference. Eurocrypt 2002, the 21st annual Eurocrypt conference, is organized by the International Association for Cryptologic Research (IACR) in cooperation with the Coding and Crypto group of the Technical University of Eindhoven. The conference addresses a wide range of developments in cryptology and its applications in information security. The Program Chair is Lars Knudsen and the General Chair is Berry Schoenmakers. See www.ec2000.tue.nl for the preliminary program. At the conference each participant gets a copy of the proceedings as published in Springer-Verlag's LNCS series. In addition, each participant becomes a member of IACR for the next calendar year, which includes a subscription to the Journal of Cryptology.
The social program includes the conference lunches from Monday through Thursday, the welcome reception on Sunday evening, the catering during the Rump Session on Tuesday evening, and the banquet on Wednesday evening.
Use Form A for registration to the conference, incl. registration to the accompanying persons program.

Accommodation. Hotel Okura lies in the south of Amsterdam, near the A10 ringway. The hotel can be reached from Schiphol by Airport-Hotel Shuttle, by taxi or by public transport in about 15 to 30 minutes. Hotel Okura is a 24-stories tall 5-star hotel, with a marvelous view over Amsterdam and with its own pier on the Amstel canal. Rooms at much reduced rates are available for Eurocrypt attendees, see Form B for details. In addition, rooms can be booked through RAI hotel service, see Form C for details. The locations of the listed hotels are shown on the map.
